

JAG SECURITY

Our aim is to provide each client with a tailor made package appropriate to their security needs, backed by the highest standards of service.

Every security package we supply is individual, from high profile uniformed officers to personnel specialising in lower profile security support. We are committed to providing top quality well trained personnel at all times personnel who will not just do their job effectively but will integrate well with your own team and adhere to your own high standards of customer service.

Phone: 0844 247 3655

E-Mail: info@jag-security.com

We provide a comprehensive range of services to match virtually all security requirements.

Ours is a bespoke service, meaning we provide professional personnel to match your security needs and address any particular security issues you may have.

Because all companies are different and have varying security priorities, our starting point is what you want to achieve. We will never attempt to persuade you to buy into services you don't need.

- Retail Security officers
- Corporate Security & reception duties
- Security for special events
- Covert surveillance
- CCTV and staff
- Key holding alarm response
- Mobile patrols
- Lone worker monitoring
- CCTV monitoring
- Vehicle tracking
- Construction
- Hospitals
- Car parks

Customer Charter

The Jag Security Customer charter is the basis for a satisfactory and continuing fair trading relationship with our customers. The Charter assures every client that:

Customers can expect to receive service that is high quality and value for money.

We will guarantee to provide replacement staff within three working hours should the need arise.

An effective line off communications the management team will be available 24/7

Our fully trained staff will ensure that the highest standards of customer service will always be provided.

We guarantee competitive rates for Retail and commercial contracts

We guarantee to resolve issues efficiently and courteously

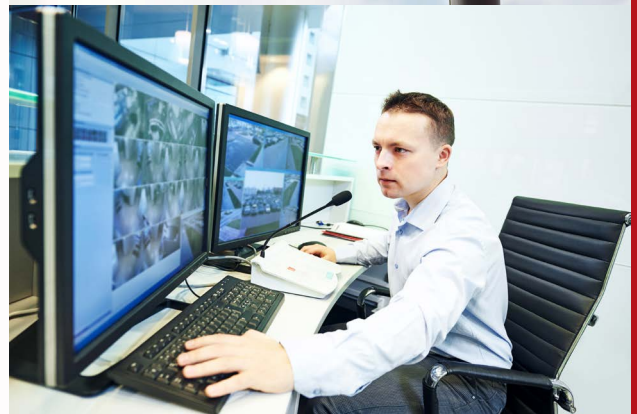

Selecting who to trust with your security needs is one of the most important business decisions you will make.

With our network of partners we are able to provide a national service across the UK.

How we can help you.

We listen to our clients to help them evaluate their particular needs and circumstances and we will guide you through the maze of current legislation to ensure that our solutions suit your requirements.

We will carry out a detailed security site survey to develop the right package for your company.

Our clients

With a long established client list and strong reputation for excellent service and highly trained staff, Jag Security Ltd makes that decision easy. Below are just a few of our clients.

Address: First Floor Offices
25 Newmarket Beccles
Suffolk
NR34 9HE

Phone: 0844 247 3655

Fax: 0844 507 0352

E-Mail: info@jag-security.com

Web: www.jag-security.com